

LEGAL SECRETARY

(Legal Secretary to the Norwegian Judge; temporary one year; a Norwegian law degree is required)

The EFTA Court in Luxembourg invites applications for the position of Legal Secretary to Judge Per Christiansen. Entry on duty during 2019 is desirable, and for a fixed term of 12 months without the possibility of an extension.

Required qualifications for the position are a Norwegian legal education with good grades, preferably supplemented with education from abroad; relevant work experience, preferably at least two years and with EU / EEA law; knowledge of Norwegian on a mother tongue level as well as a very good command of both written and oral English (the working language of the Court is English).

The Court offers an attractive remuneration package and benefits.

Interested candidates are invited to fill out the "EFTA Court application form" (available on the Court's website - under "the Court" / "Vacancies and Trainees"). Please send the application by e-mail, along with a brief "letter of motivation" (in English) and copies of academic diplomas, to havard.ormberg@eftacourt.int. Questions regarding the post may be addressed to Legal Secretary Håvard Ormberg at +352 621 684 278.

Deadline: 15 September 2019
